Sir. In submitting herewith the correspondence ending with Mulbagal Amildar's report No. 40 dated 6th ultimo for orders, I have the honor to State that Raichar Raghavendra char was the Archick of Rajavarasimi Brundavana in the Mulbagal Taluq. Having no issues he had adopted a cousin by name Seshachar who pre-deceased him, leaving a widow by name Bhondamma, while the father and the Son were alive they lived together for a time, the Son performing the pooja in the mutt and making over the allowance of Rs 2-6-8 per mensem to

to his father. They then separated from each other owing to certain family discussions. On the demise of his son, the father Raghavendra char applied to the Amildar to register the office of Archuk in the name of Bheepathi Rao, — husband of a girl brought up by him. Dhondamma the — widow of his adopted son disputed it, she being the sole heir, and no final order seems to have been passed at the time. The registeredar Raghavendra char also died subsequently, on which event, the said Dhondamma prayed that her brother Ramaiah char might be appointed to the office and appointed on a temporary measure ma. Kalsmanna char who performs the Puja in the Math.

produced in support of her title to the office, and is to the effect that Sir, the said Dhondamma is the daughter in-law of the agreement executed by the latter that the office of Archik should go to Sesha chari the deceased husband of Dhondamma. I therefore recommend, that the Vacant Archik-Ship may be conferred on Ramesa chari, the brother of Dhondamma, as desired by her, She being incompetant to perform the puja personally.-
